

Job Description for Community Nurse/Researcher

Job Title: Community Nurse

Department: Clinical

Reports To: PMI Headquarters

Location: Idanre, Ondo State

Employment Type: Full Time

Responsibilities

Manage the One-Stop Shop for Health

- Prescribe and dispense drugs to the villages
- Provide basic consulting services and prepare villages to meet with the doctor for consultancy.
- Report patient's health status to the doctor in-charge or the Medical Review and Advisory team
- Maintain updated patient record on MediQ
- Organise community health education and lectures weekly in the village
- Work with Curators and provide good reception during Health4Rural visits
- Must be willing to reside in Awo-Kajola or any assigned community for at least 4 days in a week from 9 am to 5 pm
- Maintain good relationship with all the villagers
- Document and digitise medical records from Pioneer Medical Initiative's outreaches
- Facilitate and oversee referral of patients to relevant facilities close to Awo-Kajola village
- Conduct surveys, focus group discussions, and interviews with community members.
- Collect quantitative and qualitative data on community health, social, and economic issues.
- Ensure data accuracy and confidentiality throughout the collection process.
- Compile collected data using basic data management tools.
- Prepare regular progress reports and present findings to the headquarters.
- Use insights from data to support project planning and decision-making.

Requirements

- Understands and speaks Yoruba averagely
- Willing to work in a remote community
- Female gender preferred
- Computer and internet literate
- Must have Basic technical proficiency in using digital data collection tools (e.g., smartphones, tablets) and data entry software.
-

To apply visit www.pioneermed.org.ng/careers